

CHAPTER 3. BOARD OF EDUCATION AND TRIBAL COUNCIL REVIEW

SECTION 2301 Board of Education Review

- i. At the end of the period for public hearings, the Board of Education shall assemble any and all written and oral input.
- ii. The Board of Education shall prepare and review the drafted proposed revision(s). As part of the drafted proposed revision, the Board of Education shall include copies of all notices, advertisements, letters sent, letters received, sign-in sheets for meetings and hearings, transcripts of meetings and hearings and any other supporting documentation such as, but not limited to, studies and assessments.
- iii. The Board of Education shall schedule a special meeting per Section 1402.6(a)(ii) no later than thirty (30) days from the last public hearing to review, assess, and discuss the input received.
  - a. At this special meeting, the Board of Education may at this time redraft the adopted proposed revision(s) to reflect the input of the community.
  - b. At this special meeting, the Board of Education shall either vote to recommend the proposed revision to the Tribal Council or not to recommend the proposed revision(s) to the Tribal Council.
    1. If the Board of Education decides that there is no need to recommend a proposed revision to the Tribal Council, then the revision process shall end after the vote has been recorded.
    2. If the Board of Education decides that there is a need to recommend a proposed revision to the Tribal Council, then the revision process shall continue with a copy of the proposed revision(s) and back-up documentation forwarded to the Tribal Council for Review.

SECTION 2302 Tribal Council Review

- i. The Board of Education shall present to the Tribal Council a copy of the proposed revision(s) and its supporting documentation no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of the Board of Education Special Meeting called to specifically for the revision(s).
- ii. The Tribal Council shall have thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the proposed revision with which to review the material.
  - a. During this thirty (30) day period the Tribal Council shall consult with the Board of Education at least once, in order to answer any questions or explain part or all of the proposed revision(s).
  - b. During this thirty (30) day period the Tribal Council shall ensure that the process for revision has been followed by the Board of Education, as contained in this Article.

- c. During this thirty (30) day period if the process of revision has not been followed by the Board of Education, the Tribal Council shall cite specifically what has not been complied with and request that the Board of Education do what is necessary to bring their action in compliance with the process for revision.
- iii. At the end of the thirty (30) day period, the Tribal Council shall have a period of no more than thirty (30) days to either adopt or reject the proposed revision(s).
- iv. If the proposed revision is rejected, the Tribal Council shall state the specific reasons the proposed revision(s) was not adopted.
