

ARTICLE II. EDUCATION CODE REVISION

CHAPTER 1. PROCESS, INITIATION, ADVERTISEMENT

SECTION 2101 Process for Revision

- i. The process of revision outlined in this Article II shall be followed at all times. No other process may be utilized other than the one contained in this Article II unless otherwise provided for in this Education Code.
- ii. All Board of Education minutes of meetings and hearings pertaining to a revision shall be verbatim.
- iii. The process shall include the input of the community at all times

SECTION 2102 Initiation of Revision

- i. The Board of Education shall:
 - a. Determine the need for revision within this Education Code;
 - b. Identify exactly what is to be revised and to what extent;
 - c. Only address revision of policies, regulations, procedures, processes, and issues contained in this Education Code.
- ii. The Board of Education may consult with other tribal boards, committees, local or state education agencies, or with the Tribal Council to determine and identify what may be changed.
- iii. Any additional revisions of policies, regulations, procedures, processes, and issues not contained in this Education Code may only be addressed with the express permission of the Board of Education.
- iv. After the Board of Education has determined the need for and identified what is to be revised, the BOE shall draft and present the proposed revision(s) at a Committee of the Whole meeting scheduled by the Board of Education.

SECTION 2103 Advertisement of Proposed Revisions

- i. Prior to this presentation of the proposed revision(s), the Board of Education shall advertise these proposed revision(s) within the community for a period of no less than forty-five (45) days.
 - a. The advertisement shall include a statement of what is to be revised and why it is to be revised.
 - b. The advertisement shall also include the full text of any proposed revision(s), and the time, date, and location of the Board of Education meeting where the revision(s) will be presented.

- c. These advertisements shall be posted in at least six (6) publicly accessible places on the Rancheria for a period of not less than forty-five (45) days.
 - d. The advertisement shall also be placed as a notice in a local paper for a period of at least thirty (30) days.
- ii. Any student, staff, department, office, program, and/or project directly affected by such proposed revision(s) shall also be notified by letter, with a copy of the advertisement attached, at least forty-five (45) days in advance of the Committee of the Whole meeting addressing the revision(s).
